5th Anniversary

Commemorating Five Years of Leadership and Innovation

We are celebrating our 5th Anniversary of offering systemically informed education for clinicians, researchers, and theorists. The following programs are residential and offered only on campus at 3301 College Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Ph.D. Degree Program in Family Therapy (Established in 1988)
Educating scholars, researchers, senior clinicians and teachers in clinically-based theory, qualitative research, and brief, systemic approaches to therapy through two full-years of live-supervised practicums.

Family Therapy Associates (Established in 1988)
Serving over 1000 families in South Florida annually in our state of the art clinic and principal training facility, with Ph.D. clinical assistantships available in a variety of service grant programs, addressing county-wide family therapy needs.

M.S. Degree Program in Family Therapy (Established in 1990)
Training front-line therapists in brief, systemic, solution-focused, and problem-solving approaches for Florida licensure as a Marriage and Family Therapist through our COAMFTE of AAMFT approved Candidacy Program.

Florida Supreme Court Approved Mediation Training Programs (Established in 1991)
Conducting state-wide seminars in Family Mediation, Circuit Civil Mediation, and County Mediation.

M.S. Degree Program in Dispute Resolution (Established in 1992)
Training professionals in innovative alternatives to problem solving such as mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and fact-finding.

C.S. Degree Program in Family Systems Health Care (Established in 1993)
Educating doctors, nurses, allied health professionals, and therapists in biopsychosocial approaches to primary health care and medical family therapy.

Ph.D. Degree Program in Dispute Resolution (Coming in 1994)
Advancing theory, research, supervision, and practice for practitioners and scholars of alternative means for conflict and dispute resolution.
