

Conflict Analysis & Resolution Faculty Positions #999069 and #994860 Assistant/Associate Professors (Rank TBD)

Nova Southeastern University's School of Humanities and Social Sciences (SHSS) has two full-time openings in the Department of Conflict Analysis and Resolution (DCAR) for Assistant/Associate Professors (rank TBD). The position requires a doctoral degree in conflict resolution or related field, and must be earned and conferred by date of hire. Rank and salary will be commensurate with experience.

Required experience includes background and experience in conflict resolution practice, teaching, and grant writing; with research background in qualitative and/or quantitative methodologies. Preferred qualifications are to be skilled in one or more of the following areas: Quantitative Methods; Asia/Southeastern Asia; Applied Conflict Resolution Systems and Processes; Organizational or Workplace conflict; and Grant Development.

DCAR offers M.S. and Ph.D. programs as well as a variety of graduate certificates in both residential and distance learning formats. The successful candidate will teach in doctoral, master's, and other graduate courses as assigned; and will also provide student advising/mentoring, research, writing, and thesis/dissertation supervision.

Nova Southeastern University is an independent, not-for-profit academic institution with Carnegie's classification of community engagement, as an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Applications will be reviewed until positions are filled. Please apply online at www.nsujobs.com, refer to Position #'s 999069 and 994860. Visit www.shss.nova.edu for more program info.